Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weaknesses and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional indorsement of each of its several ingredients—worth more than any number of ordinary non-professional testimonials. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

DECISION REVERSED.

The Supreme Court of North Carolina at Raleigh yesterday handed down an opinion in the passenger rate litigation, reversing the decision of Judge Long in fining the Southern Railway Company $30,000 for selling tickets at rates in excess of 2 1-4 cents, prescribed by the new law. In all other essential particulars the rate law is declared constitutional. The opinion affirms the right of the State courts to punish agents and officials of the roads for selling tickets at an excess rate. The bringing of penalty suits of $500 each by individuals against the corporation for violating the law is upheld. It holds that the Federal court has no authority to issue an injunction against bringing suits, criminal or civil, against the railroad, as it would in thus enjoining a criminal action bring a suit against the State, which is forbidden by the United States constitution, as the act of the legislature was self-operating as to passenger fares, and required no action on the part of State officials.

The opinion is rendered by four justices of the Supreme Court, and is dissented from by Chief Justice Clark, who holds that if an agent can be fined or imprisoned, the railroad also can be fined as a punishment for its acts in causing an agent to sell tickets at illegal rates. In his dissenting opinion he intimates that the legislature should be called together in special session, so as to make the act so explicit that the railroads can be punished by fines.

Associate Justice Brown, in an opinion concurring with the majority, says that there is no need of an extra session of the legislature, for if the act as it stands is enforced the railroads would not stand a week's violation of it.

The opinion sets out the following four points:

First—That there was no error in Judge Long compelling a trial of the case.

Second—That the federal court's injunction was no defense to a criminal action, the federal court having no power to enjoin a criminal prosecution.

Third—That the rate law was self-executing in effect and that no suit against the State will hold in defiance of the eleventh amendment to the constitution.

Fourth—That where a civil penalty is prescribed against a corporation, followed by the creation of a criminal offense against the agents of the corporation, the civil penalty first prescribed relieves the corporation of punishment by indictment under the criminal offense created against the agent.

The court holds that the defendant received absolutely fair trial before Judge Long, but that there was no criminal offense charged in the bill of indictmen against the Southern Railway, the offense of selling tickets above the 2 1-4 rate being charged against Ticket Agent T E Green, who was punished by fine.

The act of the legislature prohibits a charge above 2 1-4 cents per mile, and then provides that any railroad company violating the provisions of the act shall be liable to a penalty of $500, and the agent be guilty of a misdemeanor. The opinion holds that where an offense is created by statute and the same statute prescribes the penalty, or the mode of procedure, only that indicated by statute can be followed, but where the offense is at common law, statutory provisions not directly repugnant to the common law are cumulative and either law may be followed. Where an offense is prohibited but the law is silent as to any penalty, an indictment will lie, but where an offense is prohibited and a penalty is imposed, the court holds that no indictment will lie, and hence the judgment of the lower court is arrested.

How Diptheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. SEAL ESTABLISHES ALIBI.

Wm. Seal, charged with the murder of his son-in-law, Wm. Smith, in Rappahannock county, in September, was acquitted yesterday at Culpeper by a jury after a few minutes consideration of the case. Seal's witnesses yesterday succeeded in establishing an alibi, and the credibility of witnesses for the State was vigorously attacked.

Fred Jenkins, jointly indicted with Seal for the murder of Smith, will be placed upon trial immediately.

James H. Judd, a witness for the defense, testified yesterday that Jenkins told him soon after the murder of William Smith that he shot and killed him, and, further, that Claude Norris gave Jenkins $13 to kill Smith. These statements were vigorously denied by Claude Norris.

Mrs. Fred Jenkins, who had previously made an affidavit proving an alibi for her father, William Seal, testified yesterday that she signed the affidavit at the direc' command and threat of her mother, the wife of William Seal. She said that her mother told her that the only way Seal could be cleared of Smith's murder was by Mrs. Jenkins testifying that William Smith had had improper relations with her.

Mrs. William Seal, wife of the defendant, testified that on the evening of the killing of Smith both she and her husband were at home at about the time the murder was taking place, eating supper, and that Fred Jenkins, who lived with them, was then absent, and that she and her husband sat at the supper table for nearly two hours before Jenkins came home to his evening meal. Other witnesses aided in establishing an alibi for Seal.

THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 5, 1907.

THE DEMOCRATIC leaders in Baltimore are being annoyed beyond endurance by flocks of men suffering from the office mania. Many of the applicants are said to lack the necessary natural or acquired talents necessary to fill positions to which they aspire, but are ready to relinquish occupations which they can fill in order to assume duties of which they are ignorant. The list of applicants for positions already far exceeds the number of positions to be filled. A prominent democrat in commenting on such an unfortunate state of affairs said:

There are men who have never filled a clerical position and who probably could not frame a grammatical sentence if their lives depended upon it, who lay claim to places requiring considerable ability. The fact that they cannot do the work does not appear to them an obstacle. They count upon others covering their shortcomings and then drawing the salaries. One of the heads of departments who accepted in good faith the recommendation of a leading politician, installed as clerk an applicant whose only qualification proved to be his ability to get out votes on election day.

A councilman who was obliged to sign a number of applications said that he did so knowing the man recommended did not measure up. "What was I to do?" said he. "If I refused to sign I made an enemy." Troubles similar to the above are encounted by political leaders in all cities.

THAT the banks of the country have an ample supply of currency is shown by the reports that have been prepared for Comptroller Ridgely, in response to a call for a statement of the condition of the national banks at the close of business on December 3. The call was issued yesterday, but it had been expected, and the banks were ready with the figures. From nearly every city the reports are to the effect that the banks are away above their reserves, and probably never before in the history of the country have the banks held so much actual cash as at the present time. This shows that is the financial institutions that have been hoarding not the people. This, he said of the Alexandria let no depositor suffer cash and their reports has been no hoarding of money by them.

IN HIS remarks last Saturday accepting the minority leadership of the House Mr. Williams dwelt on the fact that the republicans had severely condemned President Cleveland for issuing bonds in time of peace, despite the fact that such a course was necessary to preserve the integrity of the currency, whereas now, he said, in the midst of what is advertised by the republicans as the greatest prosperity the country has ever known, President Roosevelt has issued bonds to the amount of $75,000,000. But Mr. Roosevelt has so hypnotized the republicans that a majority of them believe that anything he does is right.

THOSE who wish to take part in the election next June must pay their State capitation tax on or before Tuesday next, the 10th instant. In that election in Alexandria and in all the cities of the State the Mayors and one half the members of the City Councils will be chosen. This is a most important matter and should not be overlooked. Remember that the selection for the above mentioned officers will rest entirely with those whose names are on the Treasurer's books when he closes them on Tuesday next.

AN army of nearly 100,000 foreigners migrated to their native lands last month. It is estimated that before the present exodus ends about 200,000 people will have returned to Europe, victually forced out of the country by the financial stringency and the slack in business. Assuming these emigrants take $100 each, they will carry from the country $20,000,000.

From Washington.

Washington, Dec. 5.

Will Kansas city's big bank failure injure the chances of that city for getting the next republican national convention. That is the startling query that is being propounded in hotel corridors and public places where noted politicians are gathered. The delegation from the Missouri city is shocked over the bad news but the members are vehement in their declaration that the failure will not injure the future prosperity of their city not deprive it of the national convention prize, up to this time conceded to be pretty thoroughly in their grasp.

The Alabama bear, shipped from Mobile for the "bear dinner" at the White House, Friday night, arrived by express today. It is a little, thin carcass, "No larger than a kitten" as one woman tourist remarked when it was shouldered into the White House today. Nevertheless it will furnish all the steaks, chops and stews that the President's party can eat tomorrow evening.

A spirited currency debate promised for today by minority Senators was not heard. By agreement of the leaders it was deferred until Monday, to which day, the Culberson and Clay resolutions of yesterday, calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for information relating to bond issues and public deposite went over.

A proposition to increase the pensions of widows of soldiers of the civil war from $8 to $12 a month was advanced in the House today by Representative McKinley, of Illinois.

An appropriation of $50,000,000 a year for the next ten years for the improvement of the waterways of the country was predicted by Representative Burton, of Ohio, retiring chairman of the rivers and harbors committee of the House, at today's meeting of the rivers and harbors congress. During his speech a delegate interrupted him with the question: "How large an appropriation will meet the favor of the rivers and harbors committee, Mr. Burton?" "Well," said Burton, deliberately, "I guess we can stand the $50,000,000 a year for ten years which is a part of your platform." This caused great applause. The opening speech of the morning session, by Governor Glenn of North Carolina, also caused demonstration. He pleaded for unrestricted development of the resources of the nation, and more waterways on which to ship products now insufficiently handled by the railroads. "That improvement of our waterways by the national government is an investment," said Gov. Glenn. "It is a profitable investment, and the Treasury will grow with internal revenue receipts if our prayer for a $50,000,000 appropriation yearly is granted." President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway, followed. He said in part: "I believe, however, that sound economic principles require that the government should leave the ownership and operation of all vehicles, both on water and on land to private enterprises, and that the construction and operation of railways should be left to private enterprise, subject to such wise governmental regulation as is necessary for the prevention of wrong, and for insuring to each individual equality of treatment on the highways of commerce." Among other speakers at the morning session were: Lloyd E. Chamberlain, president of the Massachusetts State Board of Trade, and H. M. Beardsley, Mayor of Kansas City.

With the formal launching of the Knox boom at the Sibley banquet last night, there are today five favorite sons for the republican party to draw to. With Roosevelt in the back ground and still to be reckoned with, the G. O. P. may really claim half a dozen. As all the other candidates are in deadly earnest in taking the trick, he might be called the joker of the pack. What the "joker" will decide to do; whether he will stick by Taft, or throw his strength to a stronger candidate, if the war minister's boom begins to wane; or whether he will in the end bow to the demand and run once more for the presidency, are problems that are worrying each of the crowd of favorite sons more than his fear of any other's candidacy. The Taft boom has been strengthened to some extent with the last forty-eight hours by the appearance on the scene of Arthur I. Vorys, the Taft campaign manager. Vorys had a long con- ... President at the White ... yesterday and when it was over ... ased with the prospects." ... s that he will stay here ... eeting of the republican ... ttee, and the conclusion ... and Harbors Congress Joseph B. Kesling of Indianapolis has opened Fairbanks headquarters at the Raleigh; the entire Illinois congressional delegation is shouting for Mr. Cannon; John R. Malloy, of Ohio, is here booming Foraker; the Pennsylvanians are declaring that Knox is the coming man; and all the anti-Roosevelt congressmen and politicians east of the Alleghanies, outside of Pennsylvania assert that Hughes will be the ultimate choice of the convention. Of all the favorite son booms, the Hughes affair is the most puzzling. The majority of the national committee are said to be in favor of Kansas City for the convention. Denver will throw her weight for Kansas City, and so will St. Louis. Anything to beat Chicago, says the St. Louisans and Denverites, and as Chicago is not making any strenuous effort to get the plum, Kansas City it is likely to be. Chairman New is in favor of setting the date in June as early as the 2nd. All the favorite sons' managers profess to be willing to have the convention anywhere and at any time.

Unofficial advices here from Tokio say Togoro Takahira, formerly Japanese minister to the United States has been appointed to succeed Viscount Aoki as ambassador. The Japanese embassy here has heard nothing of the reported appointment of Takahira's. Up to 1 p. m. today the State Department had received no official advices regarding Takahira's appointment.

They were taken to the Emergency Hospital. At 11:30 the physicians at the hospital stated that the couple were in a dangerous condition.

Chairman Fowler, of the House committee on banking and currency, today announced the following members as the sub-committee who will draft the committee's bill for currency legislation: Fowler, Prince and Calderhead, republicans and Lewis and Gillespie, democrats. By eliminating Representative Burton, of Cleveland, from the special committee, Chairman Fowler dashes cold water on the aspirations of the Ohio member to take a leading part in this legislation. The special committee will not meet before Saturday.

While entering the capitol, through one of the revolving doors today, Wm. T. Seward, of Connecticut, a doorkeeper of the Senate, dropped dead of heart disease.

In the House today Mr. Acheson introduced bills to make the beer drinker pay for all waterway improvements by levying an additional tax of one dollar a barrell on beer, and to make it a crime for any persons making interstate shipment or intoxicating liquors.

In reply to direct appeals to the farmers and growers at Chicago of the west, C. R. Ervin, president of the Lord and Thomas Company have secured evidence that all farm products are rapidly being converted into money at prices which never before have equalled into this country.

Three fires today in Pearl street and east Seventeenth streets, New York, caused one death, endangered the lives of thirty firemen, gave opportunity for spectacular rescues of women and children, caused a $50,000 loss, and may result in the deaths of seven firemen overcome by gas and smoke.

At the dinner given last night at the New Willard Hotel in Washington by former Congressman Joseph C. Sibley, to the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress, the Knox presidential boom was launched by his many notable friends present, led by Hon. James Francis Burke, member of Congress from Pittsburg.

According to reports received from the South, there will be a general shutting down of lumber mills. The suspension will begin this week, and will last until after the holidays. In some cases the suspension will be due to the stringency in the money market. In other cases it will be due to overproduction.

The Chicago democrats will pay homage tomorrow to W. J. Bryan in an endeavor to convince him they have been "for him" all along. On his arrival at 9:30 Bryan will be escorted to the Bryan league headquarters where a reception will be held. As a guest of the Iroquois Club at noon he will deliver his only address. An afternoon reception will follow and Bryan will depart for Freeport, Ill.

Virginia News.

The twelfth annual meeting of the Virginia Horticultural Society convened yesterday in the County Assembly Hall, Staunton, with a large attendance.

Mrs. Annie Casey, widow of the late Wm. V. Casey, of Leesburg, died at the home of her son in that town on Sunday morning, from heart disease and dropsy, in the 75th year of her age.

Dr. W. H. Taylor, State chemist of Virginia, after an analysis of the stomach of J. Merrit Underwood, of Floyd county, supposed to have been murdered, announced that he could find no trace of poison.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Edmond H. Morris, and Birdie C. Pennington, both of Midland, and to Richard I Grover, of Remington, and Clara. B. Carter, of Nokesville.

Miss Katherine Lee Montgomery, daughter of Mrs. Blanche Brockenbrough Montgomery, of Fredericksburg, and Mr. Daniel Lochier Grove, of Clarksburg, W. Va., were married at St. George's Episcopal Church in Fredericksburg, yesterday.

Governor Swanson received an invitation from the Daughters of the American Revolution of New York, requesting him to be the guest of the society on the evening of Friday at Sherry's, at which time it is desired that the Governor make an address, that being the anniversary of the marriage of Gen. George Washington. The Governor was compelled to decline the invitation.

Richard E. Byrd, of Winchester, chairman of the committee which lately investigated the book contracts of the State, is in Richmond to meet the other members of the committee and to prepare the report to be made to the General Assembly, when it convenes in January. The report, it is believed, will go after the book companies which have violated contracts with the State of Virginia in selling school books to other States at a lower price than to Virginia.

Defending Standard Oil.

New York, Dec. 5.—John Archbold, active head of the Standard Oil Company, has broken the silence of a quarter century which has hidden the inner workings of the greatest corporation, and today, in a signed article in the Saturday Evening Post attempts to defend the combination in all its workings. He closes with this statement, which must refer to the object of the present suit by the government: "To disintegrate its varied arteries of trade, reared and developed at home and abroad with such indefatigable enterprise and industry, would be a national calamity." The whole article seeks to show that the criticism has been unjust and that the success of the Standard has come to it solely through its superior business methods, enterprise and industry.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The first bill day of the session yesterday brought out a flood of proposed measures, among which were a number of bills affecting the District of Columbia.

Senator Lodge offered an amendment to the rules, which led to a spirited colloquy between himself and Senator Carter.

Democratic resolutions were introduced, calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for information concerning the recent emergency bond issue and other financial relief measures.

Senator Tillman suggested a measure to facilitate the business of the Senate by doing away with the reading of titles of bills not of general interest.

Senator Teller introduced a bill for the admission into the union as a State of the Territory of New Mexico. The Arizona statehood bill was introduced later by Senator Flint.

SENATE.

When the Senate met today the credentials of Senator elect Johnson, for the full term, and the credentials of Senator-elect Bankhead, for the short and long term, were presented and filed. The former succeeded the late Senator Pettus and the latter the late Senator Morgan.

The Senate adopted a resolution instructing the committee on the District of Columbia to inquire into the status of the management and organization of the public schools of the District.

An elastic currency measure was introduced by Senator Knox, by request.

The Senate today elected a president protem. The honor went as usual to Senator Frye, of Maine, but not without a pleasant by-play When the question came up of adopting the resolution minority leader Culberson moved to amend by inserting the name of Senator Daniel of Virginia.

Mr. Daniel, in expressing his appreciation of the honor, said he knew that he would not make nearly so able a presiding officer as Frye. "I wish to say that I'll not feel hurt or have my feelings injured if the other gentlemen is elected," he declared smilingly. The Senate smiled and "the other gentleman" was selected.

The Senate has adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

The House was in session only nine minutes today and adjourned until Monday.

Amid the applause of the democrats the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved—"That the House of Representatives acknowledges the welcome greetings from the State of Oklahoma, and requests the speaker to tender our congratulations and good wishes for her future progress and greatness:"

Speaker Cannon will comply with the resolution.

The Secretrry of the Treasury's annual report was presented.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

Representative Carlin, of Alexandria, the new member of the House from Virginia, at the democratic caucus last night offered a resolution permitting John Sharp Williams, minority leader, to name the minority members of the committees. It was adopted by an overwhelming vote of 124 to 4.

The resolution of Mr. Carlin was a substitute for that of Mr. Jones, of Virginia, which provided that the power to name the minority members should be taken out of the hands of the democratic leader and given to the Speaker. It was Mr. Jones who called the caucus, securing two more votes than necessary to do so. A large percentage of the total number of democrats in the House were on hand and listened to Mr. Jones for an hour, as he explained the following resolution:

"Resolved, that inasmuch as the rules of the House of Representatives provide that the Speaker shall appoint the standing committees thereof, the selection of the minority as well as of the majority members of which committees being clearly embraced within this duty, it is the sense and the desire of the democratic members of the House of Representatives of the Sixtieth Congress that he shall assume the responsibility of making this selection, and not delegate the authority to do so the titular leader of the minority who, in their judgment, would not in any way be embarrassed or hampered thereby in the discharge of his duty."

Many members of the caucus insisted afterward that Mr. Jones made no personal attack upon Mr. Williams, but, in view af the fact that Mr. Jones joined in the fight last winter on Mr. Williams' selection for minority leader, and that the resolution was curtailing Mr. Williams' authority as democratic leader, the action of Mr. Jones in calling the caucus and offering the resolution was not regarded as friendly.

Mr. Carlin proposed a substitute as follows:

"Resolved, That the leader of the minority be and he is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to recommend to the Speaker of the House the democratic members of all committees."

Only Messrs. Jones of Virginia, Slayden of Texas, Lamar of Florida, and Hardwick of Georgia, voted against the substitute.

Mr. Hay's resolution providing for refusal of unanimous consent until a tariff bill should be reported did not materialize. Neither did that of Mr. Henry providing that a committee be appointed to arrange a programme of issues. But John Wesley Gaines had Secretary Ryan read a long paper, resolving that the caucus should name a committee to propose amendments to the Reed rules; that these amendmets be fought for in the House, national convention, and each Congressional district in the next election, so that the people might be fully informed of the loss of the rights of their representatives and the concentration of power in the hands of the Speaker. Mr. Fitzgerald offered a substitute, cutting the sting out of Mr. Gains' resolution, but it was voted down. Then, on request of Mr. Gaines himself, his resolution went over until the next caucus.

—Mr. Lamar, of Pensacola, Fla., also had a resolution on the rate question, proposing that the Intestate Commerce Commission be given greater power. This was referred to the democratic members of the commission.

The caucus terminated just as it was expected it would. Fully two-thirds of the democratic members signing the call did so for the purpose of bringing the question of confidence in Representative Williams' leadership squarely before the democratic members, and having a vote upon it.

Before the adjournment of the caucus, Mr. Williams made a short speech to the members arging party harmony, declaring that the democratic outlook was better than it had been for a number of years, and the members should at once perfect their organization for the congressional committee and get ready for the fight next year.

Mrs. Hetty Green is wanted by an insanity commission in New York yesterday. Subpoena servers were busy today trying to get on the trail of the richest woman but had not succeeded when the commission finished its signing today.

A Dangerous Deadlock,

that sometimes terminates fatally is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at all drug stores, 25c.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Slashed with a Razor.

New York, Dec. 5.—As a result of the curosity of Geovanni Derosso, two men and a woman are in Hudson Street Hospital today with probably fatal injuries. Tomasso Fernato's handiwork with a razor will probably cause the deaths of Derosso and Jennie Clifford, housekeeper of the Hotel Princeton. Fernato arrived in New York yesterday from South Dakota and went to the Princeton. This morning Derosso went to the hotel seeking a woman he knew only as Jennie. He was told she was not there, but decided to have a look for himself. His quest led him to Fernato's room. The latter resented the intrusion, imagined Derosso a thief and attacked him with a razor. When he finished with Derosso the latter's throat was slashed from ear to ear. The housekeeper rushed to the room and received two slashes across the back and several gashes on the throat which will probably cause her death. Fernato than ran out on a fire escape. Policeman Hale rushed to the capture but Fernato only scampered up to the next landing where he defended himself, preventing Hale from reaching him. Officer McKennan descended the fire escape from above, but Fernato wielded his razor so readily that it was not until the uniforms of both officers had been cut to shreds that he was captured after being pounded half to death. At the hospital it was said both Fernato and his two victims will probably die.

Trouble With Miners.

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 5.—Violence is momentarily expected here today. Mine officials say they think a battle inevitable before federal troops can reach the camp from California even though should be ordered in at once.

With the town's 1,800 miners armed to a man, the mine guard under orders to open fire on any one who approaches the workings and both sides in a frenzy of rage, the slightest spark will fire the magazine.

President Henry McKinnon, of the local branch of the Western Federation of Miners, a brother-in-law, by the way, of William D. Haywood who was recently squitted at Boise City of complicity in former Governor Frank Steunenberg's assassination, was in conference most of the night with officers of the men's organization.

McKinnon refuses to give out a statement today, but other officials say the miners are determined not to be "run out" of Goldfield as were those in the Colorado camps during the troubles in the Cripple Creek district. The mine owners have not said that such an attempt will be made, but the general impression is that it will be tried as soon as the employers consider their position strong enough to precipitate a physical clash.

The trouble is the outcome of the refusal on the part of the men to receive scrip.

Strike in St, Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 5.—Employes in every mill in St. Petersburg and vicinity struck today in token of sympathy with fifty-four progressives, thirty-seven of them members of the second douma who have just been brought to trial on charges of high treason. Several parades were attempted by the strikers, but they were quickly broken up by the police. The leaders among the working men are trying to gather their entire force for a united demonstration. Arrests are being made as fast as the secret service agents can find the principal agitators. The situation is tense, the cavalry is patrolling all the principal throughfares and several persons who do not respond quickly enough to orders to clear the way are reported to have been cut down and badly injured. The fifty-four men on trial are mostly social democrats. They are accused of complicity in plots to overthrow the government.

Alfonso Seasick.

Brest, France, Dec. 5.—So limp and washed out from seasickness that he was barely able to stand, King Alfonso, of Spain, landed from the British warship Renown, in harbor here today. The Renown was to have gone direct from Plymouth to La Rochelle whence King Alfonso, Queen Victoria, their baby and suite planned to take a special train for San Sebastian, Spain. Such were the king's suffering from mal de mer, however, that he ordered the vessel to run as fast as it could for the nearest port, and Brest was the most convenient. The gale which caused Alfonso's sufferings is still blowing and until it subsides the Renown will stay in harbor. The monarch was not even well enough to go ashore after the ship reached port.

Secretary Taft.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 5.—Secretary Taft and party left St. Petersburg for Berlin at noon today. The secretary will spend a few hours in the latter city tomorrow evening, but has asked the American Ambassador to omit any entertainment in his honor, on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Louisa M. Taft, at Millbury, Mass.

Millbury, Mass., Dec. 5.—Horace Taft, of Watertown, Conn., son of Mrs. Louisa M. Taft, who arrived at his mother's bedside last night in answer to a hurry call, said today that Mrs. Taft was steadily sinking. She is unconscious today and unable to recognize any one.

Train Wrecked.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec .5.—The Pennsylvania Railroad's Atlantic City Express was wrecked about 7:30 this morning in the yards of the Union station. Mrs. R. F. Stevens, aged 70, of South Orange, N. J., was thrown from her seat in the Pullman and injured internally by striking the opposite berth. The accident was caused, it is said, either by a frozen switch, or a too hasty throwing of the switch, resulting in two Pullman coaches being sidewiped by passing express cars. Thirteen passengers were so seriously injured as to require medical attention.

Mr. Clarence H. Flippo and Miss Cora E. Beasley, daughter of Mr. Chas. E. Beasley, of Carolina county, were married Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents, near Guiney's.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble: but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, fifty cents.

Bank Failure.

Kansas, City, Mo., Dec. 5.—The National Bank of Commerce, the largest bank in the Missouri River Valley, failed to open its doors today. The following notice was posted on the door:

"This bank is closed by order of the board of directors and is in the hands of E. F. Bradley, examiner."

The resources and liabilities of the bank on August 22, the date of the last report to the comptroller of the currency, were $39,489,898, esch. Loans and discounts were $16,320 446; due from banks $11,868 324; deposits, $12,621,-864; due banks, $23,116,940

The loans and discounts have declined from $16,000,000 to $12 000,000 and the resources from $39,000,000 to $24,-000,000. The bank has deposits exceeding thirty million dollars.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 5.—Regarding the Kansas City Bank failure, the comptroller of the currency made the following statement today:

"The comptroller's office has been advised that the officers and directors of the National Bank of Commerce of Kansas City, Mo., decided not to open its doors today, and requested the national bank examiner to take charge until their assets could be realized on, when there is strong hope that the bank may be able to resume. This bank is one of the largest in the west and in September last had about thirty-four millions of deposits. Something like twenty-two millions of this was due to other banks. The failure is doubtless due to calls which have been made on the National Bank of Commerce for these banking balances and their inability to realize on their assets quickly enough to meet them. It is too early for the comptroller's office to give any details of the failure, but it is hoped that the bank will be found solvent, so the depositors can be paid in full, if the bank is not able to resume."

No other bank was affected and business was normal at the other local banking institutions.

Vice President Winants, in an interview, said the bank was "murdered by talk," but that all depositors would be paid in full.

The bank was known to have backed many industries and within two months would have occupied its new 16-story building.

NOT HEREDITARY

Baldness Due to a Living Minute Germ.

Many people, even unto the present day of grace, consider baldness due to hereditary influence.

Nothing is further from the truth—Baldness is caused by the onslaught of a minute organism which secretes itself beneath the scalp and attacks the roots of the hair—causing it to lose its life and fall out.

This organism cannot be got rid of except by the free and persevering use of Newbro's Herpicide.

No matter how baldly the scalp is effected the Dandruff surely disappears and hair health is restored when Herpicide is applied. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

New York Stock Market.

New York, Dec 5.—The announcement of the Kansas City bank failure was knewn on the floor of the exchange before the opening although the news had not been published and the full effect of the speculative situation was felt in the early trading. At midday everything traded in showed some gain over yesterday's close with the exception of sugar which was naturally pressed because of the death of President Havemeyer.

When to Go Home.

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner. "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Suffocated in a Tunnel.

Jersey City, N. J, Dec. 5.—Caught within the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnel at Homestead by a car of blazing tar paper, eleven workmen were overcome this morning by the dense, gaseous smoke from the mouth of the tunnel. One man was killed. Two of the men are dying and it is feared that at least others will succumb from the effects of the poisoned smoke which they inhaled. The men were caught like rats in a trap. None of them gained consciousness until after they had been removed to the hospital.

King Oscar's Condition.

Stockholm, Dec. 5 - King Oscar of Sweden is about the same today, according to bulletins from his sick room. While his physicians say he is in no immediate danger they admit that his age—his majesty is 78 years old—is against him and that there is much apprehension of serious complications. The king is suffering from catarrh of the bladder. The impression is growing that he will shortly abdicate in favor of Crown Prince Gustave, who is already acting as regent during his majesty's illness.

Fire in a Hotel.

Boston, Dec. 5 —Several guests who were confined to beds of sickness were rescued with difficulty early today when fire broke out in the Ocean View Hotel at Winthrop, an all-the-year-round beach resort just outside of Boston. The bed-ridden were carried out on stretchers carefully protected with blankets from the icy ocean winds. The damage is between $5,000 and $7,000.

TO APPOINT RECEIVERS.

In the United States District Court at Norfolk yesterday Judge Waddill decided to appoint receivers for the Jamestown Exposition Company. He announced that the court, while taking charge of the affairs of the exposition company from yesterday, will take two days to consider the names suggested by counsel for receiver. He said that at least two and possibly three, receivers will be named.

MIDGETS IN JAIL.

As was stated in the Gazette, Warden Canler and officers Knight and Ferguson arrived here yesterday afternoon about two o'clock with George Midgets, colored, convicted of the murder of Charles T. Smith. The officers say they experienced no difficulty in conducting Midgets to Alexandria, he having acted in a docile manner from the time he left the Fredericksburg jail until he was placed in the cell in this city. Midgets told the officers that his recent attempt to escape from the Fredericksburg jail was made with a hatchet, which had been furnished him by one of the jail attaches to drive some nails in his cell. He denied the statement attributed to him that he intended to kill the jailor.

EAGLES.

At a largely attended and interesting meeting of Alva Aerie No. 871, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held last evening, the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year: Past worthy president, Thomas Chauncey; worthy president, Edward J. Fleming; worthy vice president, John A. Rice; worthy chaplain, W. E. Jacobson; secretary, Joseph H. West; treasurer, Arthur A. Paul; inner guard, J. Walter Hughes; outside guard, Thomas D. Downey; trustees, Joseph C. Morgan, Peter T. Harrington and Chas. H. Zimmerman; physician, Dr. Samuel B. Moore. The meeting was followed by social session at which speeches, recitations and songs were rendered by several of the members.

KNOCKED DOWN BY WAGON.

Mr. Henry Brengle, one of the oldest residents of this city, was knocked down by a wagon at the northwest corner of Cameron and Royal streets yesterday afternoon and painfully injured. The shaft of the vehicle struck him over the left eye, making an ugly wound and breaking his spectacles. William Thomas, who it was supposed was in charge of the wagon, was cited to appear in the Police Court this morning to answer a charge of careless driving, but he proved he was in Washington at the time Mr. Brengle was knocked down. The charge against him was therefore dismissed. This was the only case before the Police Court this morning.

OYSTER SUPPER.

The oyster supper held in Confederate veterans' building last night by the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp was well attended and a delightful supper was served. The tables were in charge of Mrs. Mary Kelly, assisted by Mrs. Blanche Berkley, Mrs. E H. O'Brien, Mrs India Henderson, Mrs. J. E. Alexander, Mrs. S. S. Sipple, Mrs. Kate Wirt, Mrs. Thomas Collingsworth, Mrs. D. J. Howell, Mrs. M. M. Peyton, Mrs. Chas. Shepperson, Mrs. T. Wellington Rose, Miss Lena Shinn, Miss Daisy Williams, Mrs. E E. Padgett and Miss Ficklin. The supper will be repeated tonight from 6 to 10 o'clock. There are home-made cakes and candy on sale.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

An unusual feature in connection with the series of services being held every night at the Presbyterian Church, is the holding of meetings in the glass factories and shops of the city. A service was held today during the lunch hour at the Belle Pre Glass Factory, at which Mr. Tom Harrison, a converted railroad engineer of Atlanta, made a talk to the men of the factory, and other factories will be visited every day during the services at the church.

Services will be held at the church again tonight.

COLD WEATHER.

The mercury in the theromometer this morning stood at 19°. The cloudy weather of yesterday and last night with occasional snow flurries was followed at an early hour this morning by high northwest winds and lower temperature, and the weather today has been clear and cold. The steamer Washington, Capt. F. M. Phillips, arrived up from Norfolk about an hour and a half late this morning. The steamer experienced high northwest winds and snow in coming up the bay and during most of the time she was in the river.

FIRE FROM DEFECTIVE FLUE.

About eight o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the residence of Mr. Charles Mankin, No 327 south Patrick street. The house is situated on the west side of the street and is one of a row of frame buildings. Considerable excitement followed the discovery of the fire, and neighbors rushed into the house and lent ready hands in efforts to extinguish it. It was found that the fire had been started by a defective flue, and a hole was cut in the wall and the flames subdued without sounding an alarm.

DEATH OF MR. SHUMAN.

Mr. Matthew J. Shuman, youngest son of Mr. Louis Shuman, died at his father's residence, on King street, between Pitt and St. Asaph, at 2 o'clock this morning The deceased had for a long time been a sufferer from pulmonary disease. He was a popular young man, and his death is greatly regretted by his many friends and acquaintances. Mr. Shuman was 26 years old.

SALE AND RECITLE.

There will be at the sale for the benefit of the free kindergarten next Tuesday afternoon a mysterious orange tree which will interest the little folks. At the recital Mrs. Wools will sing "Daddy;" Mrs. Thomas Hulfish, "Bonnie Doon;" Miss Graves, "Lorena," one of the lovely old war songs and Mr. Waller The Heart Bowed Down."

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Capt. Thomas Benton Hewitt, who died Tuesday at his home in Baltimore, took place this morning from St. Elizabeth Catholic Church in that city. A requiem high mass was offered by Rev. John J. Murray, the rector. The interment was in Baltimore Cemetery.

PERSONAL.

Miss Agnes Ryar, of Washington, and Mr. Herbert T. Beach, of this city, were married at 8 o'clock last night at the parsonage of the M. E. Church South, by Rev. Charles D. Bulla. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Beach were tendered a reception at the home of the groom, 311 north Royal street.

The pillow drawn for at the oyster supper given at Odd Fellows' Hall last night by the Ladies' Aid Society of the German Lutheran Church was won by Miss Lillian Brill.

A meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was to have been held last night. But three members appeared and the meeting was postponed.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. French at their home on Alfred street yesterday evening handsomely entertained at a tea from 4 to 6 o'clock, and at a reception from 8 to 10, at which they introduced their daughter, Miss Georgie McComas French. The rooms were beautifully decorated and lighted and the array of pretty women and girls was most striking. Mrs. French was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Clarence Howard, Mrs. W. J. Boothe, Mrs. Richard Gibson and Mrs. F. C. Beig. In the dining room, presiding over the tables, were Mrs. George Uhler, Mrs. L.C. Barley and Mrs. Wirt A. French, who were assisted by Misses Beale Daingerfield, Clarence and Mary Snowden, Ella Fawett and Jean Brent.

WASHINGTON, D. C

The People's Xmas Store.

Ten spacious entrances from four boundary streets—Tenth, Eleventh, F and G—open into more than a score of splendid departments on the main floor, and nine commodious and safe elevators carry the thousands of patrons to the seven upper floors.

The wide aisles are so perfectly arranged that, notwithstanding a multitude of people may be passing through them, there is no crowding and no unpleasant jostling.

However, as the Christmas days approach, the tide of shoppers swells to overflowing proportions, and those who do not enjoy being in a crowd will find it less taxing to make their purchases without delay. These will be delivered at any time, as directed, even up to and including Christmas Eve.

Necessarily, stocks in every department are daily depleted. And although new goods arrive every day, those who shop early have choice of many rare and beautiful articles that cannot be duplicated.

In a number of departments are displayed unique creations that were made for us from our own designs, and they are not obtainable in any other establishment.

Our present holiday stock surpasses any we have heretofore offered, both in importations and American goods.

For many months our personal representatives searched the greatest markets and most celebrated factories in the world to obtain a supply sufficient in quality and quantity to meet the demands of our thousands of patrons. Their instructions were to buy freely and of the best. Their refined taste, excellent judgment, and unremitting efforts are abundantly evidenced in the rare and splendid collections displayed throughout our vast emporium.

The entire establishment is in readiness for our patrons by 8 o'clock every morning.

When you have more than two purchases to make use the shopping card. It is quicker and easier for you, saves much waiting for change, enables you to pay for all goods at one time, and makes deliveries more prompt and certain.

Please take small parcels with you when practicable.

AOKI'S RECALL.

A dispatch from Tokio says the ministry of foreign affairs explains that Viscount Aoki, Ambassador to the United States, was recalled at his own request, and that the recall coincides with the diplomatic changes at Berlin and Peking. The matter is ostensibly so interpreted at Tokio, but better opinion assigns the change to purely personal feelings.

Rumors of Viscount Aoki's recall have been persistent since the sending to President Roosevelt last winter of the alleged ultimatum regarding the segregation of Japanese children in San Francisco. At that time a high diplomat, who is not an American, explained that there was a disposition in certain Tokio circles to hold Viscount Aoki responsible for the trouble, which, it was said, was due to friction between him and the present ministry of foreign affairs. Such is now the better opinion in well-informed circles, where Viscount Aoki's official relations are characterized as awkward. He is strong-willed, and, belonging, as he does, to the older generation of statesmen, he has apparently regarded the officials of the ministry of foreign affairs as his juniors.

A Home Made Happy By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today.—Geo. W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritible wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great Medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him" Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by all druggists. 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

It is said at the Capitol in Washington that the President has, since the convening of Congress, given postive assurance to the Senate leaders that he will not accept a third term should it be offered to him; in other words, that he will adhere closely to his famous election night declaration that he considered the term to which he had just been elected as his second term as President, and that under no circumstances would he again be a candidate for that high office.

This assurance, if it was given, is the first intimation from the President that he is not in symyathy with the efforts being made by his friends to deliver the next republician national convention to him, and "compel" him to disregard the promise he made to the American people in 1904.

About Digestion.

It is not the quantity of food taken but the amount digested and assimilated that gives strength and vitality to the system. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and enable them to perform their functions. The result is a relish for your food, increased strength and weight, greater endurance and a clear head. Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," in an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and and chilblain disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by druggists. 25c.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.
